

3 March 2003

Hutchison Telecom Launches "3" Website

First to register, first to explore 3

Today (03.03.03) marks the official launch of "3" website (www.three.com.hk) which allows the public to register if they want to know more about "3" services.

Now simply accessing the "3" website (www.three.com.hk) and inputting relevant personal details, interested parties will be able to register and keep abreast of the latest news about "3" services, discovering more about the useful and enjoyable "3" mobile multimedia world.

With colourful and lively animation, "3" website brings first-hand experience for some of the video content-rich "3" services including video calls, news broadcast, sports video clips, financial information, mobile games, music downloads, MMS and location guide.