Hong Kong, 27 April 2016 - Hutchison Global Communications Limited (HGC) and 3 Hong Kong, the fixed-line and mobile communications divisions of Hutchison Telecommunications Hong Kong Holdings Limited (HTHKH; stock code: 215), today announced that the 3Home Broadband residential broadband service and "3" mobile service have collaborated with Google to launch the latest version of Google Chromecast in Hong Kong. This new offering comes bundled with residential and mobile service plans, or is available as a standalone offer. Customers will enjoy a new home experience featuring over-the-top (OTT) TV and gaming entertainment.

Chromecast is a media-streaming device that plugs into a TV's HDMI port. Connecting Chromecast with a TV opens access to 200,000 TV shows and movies and 30 million songs, along with radio, sports and games - all of which can be shown on a big screen. A smartphone can be used as a remote to control the TV. While in "guest mode", users can even allow their friends to screen videos or join a game via their smartphones

Taking OTT entertainment to new heights

HTHKH Chief Operating Officer Jennifer Tan said: “We are proud to build on the track record earned by 3Home Broadband and 3 Hong Kong for collaborating with OTT content providers to becoming the first telecoms operator in Hong Kong to collaborate with Google and launch Chromecast. Bundling the new device with our fixed-line and mobile service offerings amounts to an enriched home entertainment experience for both mobile and fixed-line customers. Only an integrated telecoms provider such as HTHKH, which operates both fixed-line and mobile businesses, has that capability.”

“The new Chromecast brings your favorite entertainment from your mobile devices to the big screen with ease. With improved connectivity, a new design and an updated app, friends and family can share the fun of streaming movies, music, games and shows. The future of entertainment is streaming and Chromecast brings it all to you in a simple, affordable device.” said Mickey Kim, Google Head of APAC Chromecast Partnerships.

Phillip Shih, Vice President of KKBOX, said:” 3 Hong Kong and 3 Home Broadband launched the promotion of Chromecast. KKBOX is one of the content providers. With Chromecast, users’ smartphones and tablets become TV remotes; with which users can freely select KKBox music on TV, and take advantage of KKBOX’s rolling lyrics mode to turn their living rooms into party places.

He added: “We are glad to announce that KKBOX hits 25 million tracks including pop, indie and classical music etc. Our members could enjoy different and rich content in KKBOX with all devices.”

Chromecast comes complete with a wealth of fresh home entertainment content

Also available at 3Shop is the new Chromecast, which comes complete with sleek design, a wealth of fresh content and up-to-date app that finds the best entertainment and streams faster with the utmost ease.

Chromecast comes in eye-catching colours and turns any TV into a smart TV for a fraction of the cost of buying one. The latest design makes Chromecast easier to fit TVs with crowded ports and supports modern Wi-Fi standards. In fact, the latest version adapts to changing Wi-Fi conditions in a domestic setting, ensuring higher-quality video with less buffering. The apps make TV shows and music available from YouTube, KKBOX, Spotify, Netflix, Viki and Google Play Movies. Chromecast also offers a range of popular solo and multiplayer games including “Angry Birds Go” and “Just Dance Now”.
