- 3 Hong Kong's 4.5G network ideal as a quality OTT (over-the-top) platform.
- 3 Hong Kong's 4G subscribers get a year's free use of the mobile version of the myTV SUPER Basic Pack plus TVB Premium Subscription video-on-demand service (SVOD)¹.
- TVB Data Pack² offers abundant data for delivery of TVB content.

Hong Kong, 15 November 2016 - 3 Hong Kong, the mobile division of Hutchison Telecommunications Hong Kong Holdings Limited (HTHKH; stock code: 215), today announced that the mobile version of the myTV SUPER Basic Pack coupled with TVB Premium Subscription video-on-demand (SVOD) service - worth $380 - is being made available free of charge to new and existing 3 Hong Kong 4G users for a year starting tomorrow (16 November).

3 Hong Kong has also launched the TVB Data Pack² to provide users with a spectacular OTT experience. Users can keep up to speed with popular dramas from mainland China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Japan, Korea and the US - all via 3 Hong Kong's 4.5G network.

3 Hong Kong's 4.5G network provides quality OTT platform Bringing together FDD and TDD networks has enabled 3 Hong Kong to enter the 4.5G era and provide an even smoother data service.

Jennifer Tan, Chief Operating Officer of HTHKH, said: "Our smooth and stable network, together with abundant bandwidth from our 4.5G network, provides the capacity needed to build an OTT service platform, so we are now ready to carry all kinds of dynamic mobile apps. myTV SUPER has become one of the most popular OTT offerings following inception earlier this year - and we are delighted to offer 12 months' service free of charge to all 3 Hong Kong's 4G users to help celebrate launch of our 4.5G network. This amounts to a truly superlative entertainment experience delivered by our sophisticated OTT platform."

SK Cheong, General Manager of Television Broadcasts Limited, said: "According to a recent survey into local people's viewing habits, the average time spent watching TV and video was 31 hours per week, while young people spent more time watching programmes online. In order to attract greater numbers of young viewers, we need a more diverse variety of programmes that can be watched anytime, anywhere, as well as a high-speed and stable network. I am therefore glad that the myTV SUPER bundle will be offered to all 3 Hong Kong's 4G subscribers, providing instant content that includes live broadcasts and video-on-demand. I hope this will attract more TV viewers and expand the audience."

4G users enjoy a year's free myTV SUPER service

Starting 16 November, 3 Hong Kong will offer new and existing 4G users a 12-month handset version of the myTV SUPER Basic Pack coupled with TVB Premium SVOD1 for free. They can enjoy a diversity of programmes delivered by 3 Hong Kong's advanced network simply by downloading the myTV SUPER app, which needs to be registered and activated before 31 March 2017. The service terminates automatically after the 12-month period, when users can choose to subscribe in order to continue watching the content.
