

Mobile VPN

Mobile Security

Mobile VPN acts as a secure extension of corporate network infrastructure, offering authentication capabilities for enterprises to manage mobile devices for dedicated purposes, enhancing productivity on the move while not compromising data security.

Solution Overview

Benefits

- Provide users with secure and real-time access to critical information and applications anytime, anywhere
- Enable users to connect mobile devices to internal systems through end-to-end private channels
- Assure data security with secured and encrypted communication tunnel

Features

- Carrier-grade security: restrict access to corporate's network from designated 3 Hong Kong SIM cards
- Flexible IP address options and user authentication
- Work on most mobile devices with simple configuration
- Best for mobile POS, mobile workforce management, disaster recovery use

Why 3Business

